About Aregi

The Aregi company was founded in the sunniest - western part of the Armenian Aragats Highlands. Aregi in Armenian means sunny - the best description of Armenia and Armenians!

Based on and carefully preserving the old Armenian traditions of making dried fruits, Aregi modernizes the industry, creating new quality criteria and setting a modern trend in the production of dried fruits and vegetables.

ZERO
CARBON FOOTPRINT

At the same time, it has a zero carbon footprint on the environment, since the production is powered by solar electricity.

Working to achieve the best results in the production of premium quality dry fruits and vegetables, we adhere to our vision of creating healthy and natural products, while developing infrastructure at all stages of production and preserving the ecosystem of the entire region.
